INFORMATION FOR NEW NAVY LEAGUE CADET

Cadet Code of Conduct

The Navy League of Canada is committed to providing a learning and working environment for all persons that is free from harassment.

The Navy League of Canada requires employees, officers, cadets, parents, volunteers and all other visitors to conduct themselves in a manner that promotes and protects the best interests and well being of cadets, staff and volunteers.

As a condition of membership, all Navy League Cadets must accept the following responsibilities:

- Always treat others fairly and with respect;
- Always consider you safety and the safety of your shipmates;
- Show support for Canada, your community and your corps;
- Demonstrate self-discipline and self-respect;
- Attend meetings regularly and be on time;
- Participate in all activities to the best of your abilities;
- Maintain your uniform and other equipment entrusted to your care; and,
- Follow the rules and listen to the direction of officers and senior cadets.

Members of the Navy League Cadet program have the following rights:

- To be treated fairly and with respect;
- To be included as part of the group;
- To seek help from friends, parents, officers and volunteers;
- To make decisions;
- To use the law to protect yourself and others;
- To feel safe;
- To learn;
- To say “NO” to unwelcome behaviour;
- To never be alone with an officer or volunteer; and,
- To be protected from all forms of harassment and abuse.

Failure to follow your responsibilities, as outlined above, will result in action, as deemed appropriate by corps staff. Repeat or serious offences may cause you to lose your membership privileges.

Age Notice

Please note that if your cadet is twelve(12) years old and wishes to remain as a Navy League Cadet with aspirations of going to Air/Army/Sea Cadets, they may do so. However, they could be missing out on possible Cadet activities/deployments if they do not transfer to Air/Army/Sea Cadets before 31 December of that training year.

THE NAVY LEAGUE INVITES PARENTS OR GUARDIANS TO BECOME MEMBERS, OR PROVIDE OTHER ASSISTANCE IN SUPPORT OF THIS PROGRAM
